

Northwestern Wisconsin Parent Network Agreement

The Northwestern Wisconsin Parent Network (NWPN) is a network of parents and community members from Barron, Burnett, Rusk, Sawyer, and Washburn counties that want to provide youth with a safe and friendly environment. NWPN is committed to raising children in communities that are free from bullying, drugs and alcohol and other risk factors that negatively impact the healthy development of youth. Members who join NWPN believe in the power of modeling positive behaviors for young people and in providing a safe environment.

To join NWPN and become a member, sign and return this agreement to Barron High School Student Services. Your contact information will be listed in the NWPN member directory and you will receive an electronic directory of other parents who are a part of NWPN. Guardians, extended family members and community members are also welcome to join.

Benefits of NWPN:

- Access to NWPN member directory
- Opportunity to network with other parents
- Training to keep children healthy and safe
- Information about trends and issues facing youth
- Access to community resources and other information

Members Agree to:

- Actively supervise youth gatherings
- Prohibit the possession or misuse of alcohol, tobacco or other drugs (including OTC and Rx drugs)
- Communicate with other parents
- Set age-appropriate family guidelines
- Secure weapons in the home
- Encourage responsible driving habits
- Monitor use of internet, phone and television
