We Won Our Letters

WILLIAMS—“Manny” ranks with the best guards the school has produced.
ERICKSON—Outstanding in offensive and defensive playing, “Eric” held a guard position for two years and was elected captain this year.
PAULSON—Getting down the field when the ball was punted was “Gordy’s” specialty.
HEI—Next year’s backfield will probably be built around the aggressive “Ray.”
McDONALD—Calling signals, passing, punting, and carrying the ball, “Mac” did a fine job.
OLSON—“Ole” held down the pivot post for one year with great efficiency.

HONG—When he hit, he hit hard. “Norm” was a hard driving linesman.
LE JEUNE—“Shorty” is one of the best sophomores to come up in many years who will occupy a halfback position next year.
BUCK—“Block a kick Buck” played a fine game in tackle position.
CASTONIA—“Castor” was a consistent player at all times. He will be back again next year.
BETLEY—“Stony” played a good game at halfback position.
SATHER—Although used sparingly, Allen proved he could do other things than fill a center position when given a chance.

CORNELIUS—One year at tackle berth, and "Corny" showed he could do it.
 WILLMSEN—Fighting "Vern" held a tackle position.
 CARLSON—"Stang" showed possibilities for next year's team.
 NEUMANN—"Mel" was a dependable substitute for halfback.
 BEECROFT—Because of an injury, "Beek" was unable to play more than a few weeks. However, he showed good possibilities in the early part of the season.
 KUEHNDORF—Height gave "Kenny" an advantage in capturing rebounds. He played center position for one year.

FEIDT—A capable lineman ready to replace a regular at any time.
 CLUMPNER—As "Bud" is a junior this year, he will undoubtedly be a factor in the success of next year's team.
 MARTINDALE—Three years in a forward position attests "Curt" as an excellent shot when he was on. He was high point man this year and has one more year to sink baskets for Barron High.
 MULLEN—Moon's encouraging words will be missed next year. During second semester he played guard position.
 CURTIS—"Sarge" played good ball at forward position in spite of his lack of height.
